Of this number, 2.943.119 were returned to th writers, 138.759 were re-issued to correct ad dresses, 140,784 were returned unopened to foreign countries, 390,226 were destroyed or are in hand. The increase in the number of returned letters is chiefly attributable to the incorrect manner in which circulars are addressed for it is the practice of those who issue them is large numbers to copyaddresses from directories. and as many changes of abode occur in the course of the year, such, addresses are by no means reliable. A total of 58,538 property let ters and packets were received in the returned letter branch during the year, 52,291 of which were returned to the writers. A total of 9,160 letters were posted in England and Wales with: mit any address, 236 of which contained cash, notes, bill, &c., to the amount of £2.140.
